

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Let it be known that the International Court System and its members will not discriminate against any person or persons on the basis of age, gender, gender-presentation, race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, creed, marital status, or physical and/or mental disability in any of its activities or operations. The ICC will not tolerate any violation of this Policy, and appropriate action will be taken, including the removal of membership status in the International Court System.

If an individual believes he/she is being discriminated against, the President of the International Court Council may be contacted on a confidential basis. The matter will be investigated and appropriate actions may be taken.
